

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Lewis G. Smith is retiring from his position as Wildlife Conservation Officer of Game, Fish and Parks; and,

WHEREAS, Louie has achieved excellence in every position he has held during his thirty-five year career with Game, Fish and Parks; and,

WHEREAS, Louie has been fair, honest and dedicated in all his dealings with the public throughout his entire career of service; and,

WHEREAS, Louie has never avoided those demanding tasks which are most difficult by volunteering many hours of time and effort to many different organizations; and,

WHEREAS, Louie has been an outstanding Conservation Officer and an asset to the Wildlife Resources and Sportsmen of the State of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Louie has been an inspiration to his many friends by being a wonderful husband for his wife Dorothy and a loving parent for their two children; and,

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that his friends and family gather together to honor and give thanks to Louie; and,

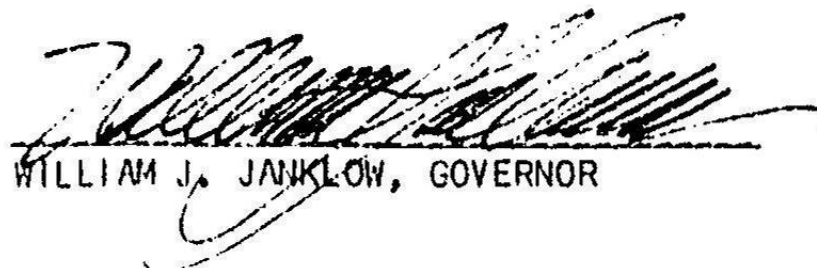

WHEREAS, it is also fitting and proper that the citizens and employees of the great State of South Dakota recognize this special occasion and honor Lewis Smith:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Thursday, January 14, 1982, as

LEWIS G. SMITH DAY

In South Dakota, and join with Lewis's friends and family in wishing him joy, happiness and sincere congratulations on this evening.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
